SPRING has at last set in in earnest. But spring is fickle and changeable in her moods, and it is not wise to anticipate much light overcast—especially at night.

The charming profits-dance of the Boston Opera Company has left severalaching hearts behind in Belleville. She is a lady that loves not wisely, but too many.

BERKEA's Librarian Minstrel Company arrived here this morning, and will remain for a few days. They have been playing to excellent business in the west, and are now enjoying a brief period of rest.

Our information with respect to the squabble among High School pupils, although denied by a "High School Pup" was correct. And further, the names of the people who were injured are known.

The question of water-works for the city appear to have quietly been allowed to drop. It is no member of the present Council to catch the mantle that has fallen from ex-Ald. Henderson.

The interior of the church has been elaborately frescoed by Mr. Richardson, of this city. One of the frescoes is of the Resurrection, and the other of the Ascension. The frescoing was completed yesterday morning.

The only damage which resulted from it, of which we have yet learned, is the injury to the Catholic church steeple, noted elsewhere, but its good results are felt in the deliciously clear and balmy atmosphere of yesterday and to-day.

Several drivers of vehicles seem to be under the impression that the street crossing made for them to stand their horses and vehicles on. The Police Magistrate may convince some of them to the contrary, to their cost, some of the drivers who wish to occupy crossings and force pedestrians to wait their little pleasure or walk in the mud, are brought before him.

Mr. J. M. Walker's house with great violence. The crowd knocked singly out of position, and will have to be repaired.

In a recent number of the Scientific American, written by an old and experienced writer, the author has set forth an ingenious theory to prove that the antediluvians whose ages are mentioned in Scripture lived only a hundred and odd years instead of nine hundred, seven hundred, &c., as given in all versions of the Bible and commonly believed—the mistake having occurred through a wrong interpretation of the meaning of the original. Rev. Dr. Clarke, of this city, claims to have promulgated the same theory twenty years ago, and was then laughed at for being so.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—Toronto, April 3.—Lakes, wind increasing to strong or moderate gales from the east and south, fair to day, local rains to-morrow, higher temperature.

SUDDEN DEATH.—News was received here this morning that Mr. Frederick S. Robin, formerly of Picton, died at Brandon, Manitoba, on Saturday night, last, from an attack of inflammatory rheumatism. Mr. Robin, who was a brother of M. B. Robin, of this city, was a barrister, and was about 42 years of age. He was a student in Picton, on the 14th of Feb. he started for Manitoba in company with Mr. Roger D. Conger, and had determined to locate in Brandon, where he and Mr. Conger were erecting a building for joint occupation as a law office. He was well known and respected in this locality, and his sudden death will prove a shock to many of his relatives. He leaves a widow and (we believe) one child. The body will be brought to Picton for interment.

LOVE, MONEY, AND A CURE.—Monopoly in love is even more largely sought for by the people than monopoly in property. It is a passion for power, or monopoly in knowledge. A young and ardent farmer living in the vicinity of the city, was no exception to the rule. He was a certain individual well known in this historic name of Hyde—that is, he loved her in the sense which is meant by the poets of the fleshly school when they treat of love—and he wished to secure a monopoly of her affections. He had a fine estate, he lavished some four or five hundred dollars' worth of gifts upon her, and was most assiduous in his attentions; but recently he discovered the fact that so many have discovered before him, that the woman's vows are traced in sand—at least the vows of a woman of this particular class. Quite recently she expressed a desire to set up housekeeping on her own account, and he day after day he waited for her to return, or two after he went to see her, but she never came. He suspected something, and he made a search, and found in her trunk a letter addressed to her and written by a bank-clerk in the city, whose photograph was also enclosed. The letter contained very ardent expressions of admiration, and concluded with a wish to meet the fair but frail object of his passion at a certain house on the following night. The scales fell from his eyes, and he was at once off, and the duplicity of his innamorata soon revealed in all its hideous colors. If he could not retain her affections, however, he resolved to regain his $600 if possible; so he went to the place named in the letter at the hour designated. He found her there, and saw the bank-clerk with her whom he had hoped to monopolize.

Now him, that other, residing in Kingston. Love is the right and the heart's love.

Rev. Dr. Enoch Arden, instead of sinking away in the door, he walked boldly to the door. Lower No. 1, the door he opened, and he stepped out. A sharp report. Followed word, and the lady became incensed, and saying a club she gave him, he fell back, and she dropped and drove him into the street. He immediately had a warrant issued for her arrest. She next tried to run off, but she was arrested by the police. She is now confined in the Police Station.

MARINE.

The bay is very clear of ice, which is still firm at Cole's Point, Adolphus.

The ship De Foren is expected tonight. She will load barley for Oswego.

Our local contemporary makes much of Capt. Cuthbert's visit to the city, and learning from Saturday's INTELLIGENCER as to the probable cost of the two routes, and the improvement in the harbor, the Captain says he considers that the latter route is preferable, taking into account the much greater cost of the latter's bay.

The City's Gas.

The following statement of the illuminating power and profit of the city of Belleville, as supplied by the Gas Company for the past three months, is forwarded to us by the Gas Inspector.

In January, the highest illuminating power was equal to 16.43 candles, the lowest 15.61. Average for the month, 15.84.

In February, the highest illuminating power was equal to 16.43 candles, the lowest 15.61. Average for the month, 15.84.

In March, the highest illuminating power was equal to 16.43 candles, the lowest 15.61. Average for the month, 15.84.

The average illuminating power for the three months was equal to 15.76 candles, being 1.12 candles higher than the Government standard.

The purity of the gas does not, however, equal its illuminating power, for at forty feet distance during the three months, the purified hydrogen was present forty times as much as the gas as it was.

The Gas Company being required to supply gas entirely free from sulphurated hydrogen.

SUICIDE OF A VANDERBILT.

Cornelius J. shoots himself fatally in a New York Hotel.

ILL-HEALTH GIVEN AS THE MOTIVE.

NEW YORK, April 2.—Cornelius J. Vanderbilt, brother of Wm. H. Vanderbilt, who contested the probate will of the late Commodore, and who was shot to death through the head at the Glenham hotel, tonight, after shooting himself in the head in an unoccupied state several hours, dying about six o'clock, surrounded by many doctors and members of the family. The motive for the act, given by his friends, was that he was the result of mental derangement, brought on by years of suffering from epileptic fits. No other reason could be given, as his financial affairs were said to be in the most prosperous condition. Vanderbilt came to the Glenham hotel two weeks ago last Saturday from Florida, where he spent several weeks, and had previously visited the hot springs for the benefit of his health, which has been very poor for a year. This morning he felt more unwell than usual, and did not leave his bed.

About one o'clock an attendant left him as he supposed asleep. Suddenly he was startled by the report of a pistol, and, jumping from his bed, he found himself struggling in the agonies of death. In his right hand was an ugly wound, and still clamped in hand was a small revolver. A physician was immediately called, but he pronounced the wound mortal. Vanderbilt never spoke after firing the shot. His brother, William H., arrived about 4 o'clock, but learning that Cornelius could not live, remained only a short time.

NEW YORK, April 3.—The body of Cornelius J. Vanderbilt was removed to the Church of the Strangers this a.m. The coroner states that the ball was found on the pillow, fastened by a cord to the wall. The skull, it passed clear through his head, entering the left temple and coming out on the right side. It is thought that Scott & Lord's suit against deceased for $20,000 would be heard, in which was set down for to-day, greatly worried the latter, and was an important factor in the suicide.

HANLAN-BOYD.

Another Easy Win for the Champion.

He Plays With Boyd and Wins by Four Lengths.

NEWCASTLE, April 3.—In the Hanlan-Boyd boat race, Hanlan won by four lengths.

NEWCASTLE, April 3.—The race was a close one. Some state Hanlan won by two to three lengths.

Boyd won for position and close to the north side of the river. At the start, which was splendid, Hanlan led slightly. At Redbank Bridge, four and a half lengths from the starting point, Hanlan had increased lead to one and a half lengths.

The length of the course is about 3 miles 31 furlongs. The weather was dull, with light drifting winds and drizzling rain at intervals. An immense crowd witnessed the race.

LATER.—Hanlan played with Boyd. Boyd at the outset raised the hopes of his supporters, but Hanlan gathering himself together, he won by four lengths.

CHAPTER XXV.

LITHIA IN THE CAPITAL.

There are a number who do creep into the world to rest and sleep.

And know no reason why they're here,
But only to consume the air.

And leave behind an empty dish.
That if it were not for the fish.

They'd be the first to find it out.
And leave behind an empty dish.

That if it were not for the fish.
They'd be the first to find it out.

And leave behind an empty dish.
That if it were not for the fish.

They'd be the first to find it out.
And leave behind an empty dish.

That if it were not for the fish.
They'd be the first to find it out.

And leave behind an empty dish.
That if it were not for the fish.

They'd be the first to find it out.

CONVERSATION.

LADY CUTMERE TO FRIEND.—Have you those beautiful Bottomed-and Side Laced caps at Haines & Lockett's? They are realized in finish and style to American, and made in Kid and Polish Cat Kid, and very original and corded cloth tops, knots and collars.

FRIEND.—No, I have not seen them, I really buy my boots at ———.

LADY CUTMERE.—You are foolish to buy
— at Haines & Lockett have such a variety, and keep such a large stock, and you run it to a great business, and have the "City Boot Store," at Bellefleur, Kingston and Toronto.

FRIEND.—So I have often been told,—I try them next time I visit boots.

LADY CUTMERE.—You are foolish to always go to the same place. There are many in the boot line there, and they have one price, and don't ask 25 or 30 cents a more than they intend taking, and I feel safe at the lowest indeed, when coming prices at other stores, I have always found that ten times out of twelve I could buy much cheaper from them.

FRIEND.—Is like that way of doing business? At ——— I always have to ask for a revision or I would pay more than the price of retail trade.

LADY CUTMERE.—Certainly, it is more factitious than buying such large deal
they purchase at wholesale jobbers terms from some manufacturers who advance us
the retail trade.

FRIEND.—Of course such advantage in ing, must enable them to sell very low, accounts for their being able to do so available, as well as a Retail business at ville.

LADY CUTMERE.—They have had a great quantity of goods this Spring, and I hear they do a lot of cash business, and carefully laid the ground, —we visited the Montreal, Quebec and Eastern Manufacturers, completing Spring and Summer purchases.

FRIEND.—Why? what an immense business they must do.

LADY CUTMERE.—Yes, I have heard that they do the largest Retail Boot & Shoe business in Canada here.

FRIEND.—Good bye for the present. I will see Haines & Lockett myself one of our my need boots.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Pictures to be Framed.

URING the past 5 years there has been little at our Gallery a large quantity of

Pictures to be Framed.

have not been called for, from some who have kept no account of them.

thinking that the persons had either forgotten the places where they left them or that they did not wish to alter them, we prepared a list of each name and carefully laid the pictures, and wrote names of the persons whose address we knew, and yet there remained a good number unaltered for on if any such Pictures are taken away

during the present month, we will give a discount on the frame, as we want them to sell, —we do not intend to repair our gallery until, and do not want to have to remove them to another building and back.

an early call will greatly oblige.

"Oh, yes, quite a good deal of it."

"Oh! And how did he entertain you on such occasions?"

"Sometimes he read to me."

"What did he read?"

"Fine passages from Shakespeare, Milton, Thompson's Seasons, Cooper's Tales, and some of the best of the old channing old dried bones, such as our father taught us, and by the way, I suppose?"

"Oh, yes. He read Byron's Masque, and some of the best of the old poetry."

"And did he read no other poem of Byron's to you?"

"No, nothing but Masque, do you know that he dramatized that poem and prepared it for the stage?"

"Yes, really."

While waiting for a car we called at the Bath Medicine Co's office, 683 Craig street, which is a place well worth a visit. William H. Smith, M.D., is living in 102 Kensington Street, came in with a monster tape worm 45 feet in length, which had expelled itself day before yesterday from Dr. Smith's patient Remedy—and he spoke of it in terms of highest praise, having tried numerous other remedies and doctors without success.

We were also shown eleven large stomach worms from a little child of Patrick O'Connell's living at 95 St. George Street, one of the cures of the Remedy. They have thousands of eggs, and before our car came along they were fully supplied of the wonderful results of Dr. Smith's Great German Worm Cure.—Montréal Star.

NO. 300

vores for the Local Government. How great is the condemnation that the honorable gentleman has pronounced upon the Local Government with respect to the Orange Bill. The honorable gentleman declares that the Dominion Government are trying to crush the independence of the Local Legislature, notwithstanding the declared opinion of this Government. Mr. McGowan, on the other hand, has chosen to disregard his own legislation and to invite the Dominion Government to disregard the rights of the people, to set at naught the expressed will of his own Parliament. The honorable gentleman spoke about the subject in the Dominion Government being an insult, a slur, an injury to the Local Legislature. What is the case? Here is the Orange Bill, which affected no interest in the Dominion, inferior, otherwise, and yet that the gentleman says that the Local Legislature, offered them this insult that the honorable gentleman says we are doing, and actually invited this Government to commit the same thing. These Local Legislatures, the members of that Parliament are keeping him in his place, and what was still worse, he advised the Lieutenant-Governor to pass the bill, which he approved of himself and for which he himself had voted, and we know why that was, and if there was an instance of a man who degraded, who humiliated himself, it was that of the First Minister of the Province of Ontario, who had committed most odious crimes. He asked for the principle of the Bill that the Orange body should be incorporated, and yet, as Stephen says to Trinculo, "There shall be King, and I shall be God." They are not to be a body, they are a man-power behind the throne. Mr. Speaker, there was a man called Christopher Frazer, and he said to him, "Are that Bill if you dare." Then they possessed their little "We have a power, and we will use it. We will like to hold. If we pass the Bill we alienate the Catholic vote, and if we do not pass the Bill we alienate the Orange vote. We will commit a breach of the constitution. We will alienate our own people. We will say that this Bill ought not to be passed, although we voted for it, and we will advise the Lieutenant-Governor to send it down to Ottawa, and we will throw upon John A. all the onerance and all the onusness which his Government has incurred. By Speaker, I'm too old a bird to be caught with such chaff. I said, very politely, in very constitutional language—it was read by the hon. gentleman—“I am sure, this is none of our business.” You made that your own measure,” and he handed it back to them. Now this same gentleman who insisted his own Legislature, who, after voting for a bill, stating it was a good bill and ought to become law, then said it was not his business, this difficulty broke upon the principle which the honorable gentleman has contended for so long and so eloquently—broke upon the principle which the honorable gentleman has so strongly, and so ably, contended for. He came through the honorable gentleman, through—I was going to say, his agent over there—at all events he is not a paid agent of the Government—he comes

West Dominion to get up and denounce the Government for their action with regard to a Bill in which a great interest was involved and a great wrong was contemplated; while at the same time they withdrew from his own efforts to secure a measure in which he was wronged, nobody was hurt, and nobody but those who desired to be incorporated cared one farthing about it. The honorable gentleman in his argument gave up the case. His only ground was that the Government were doing very well. I laid down the sound and true principle, that the autonomy of every province, the independence of every Province, the independence of every Legislature, should be protected, unless the Government had a special reason for it. The Government here are not to set up their opinion against the opinion of the Local Government or the Local Legislature. But the honorable gentleman approved of my letter of 11th April, and he has done some things to meet the different populations, those different conditions and terms upon which I reported to the Governor-General, that I thought there might be over interference with the Local Legislature—I say, sir, that this is not the case. I have not been able to get rid of those conditions. The honorable gentleman knew that his Government had done the same thing. He knew it would be judged against him, and what do he say? True we did not have any exceptions, but the exceptions were all exceptional! Well, this was an exceptional case. I do not say the honorable gentleman was not right in what he did. I do not say he was not right in every detail. I allowance for every detail. I do not maintain that the Franchise Act, but it does not rest in his every object if he follow his example at a humble distance when we think that great interests are involved and we desire to protect them from the germ of destruction. I am a German, and, to show how strong his feelings were in favor of the independence of the Local Legislature, says many other things. "Why," says he, "I have known measures in the Local Legislature, which I would have considered as a disapproval of and voted against, and yet when they became law I never raised my voice in favor of disallowance." And he mentioned the Goodhue Bill. Why, Mr. Speaker he voted for it.

Mr. Blake.—No sir

Mr. John Macdonald.—Oh, he voted for it.

Mr. Blake.—No, sir.

Mr. John Macdonald.—Oh, he voted for it.

Mr. Blake.—There was only one division on the who bill, as I am informed by gentlemen who have just gone out for the journals. At all events, I will read you what took place, when the Governor signed the bill. The third resolution, will just say, before reading the resolution, the House will see that it was drawn up especially for the purpose of doing away with the inquiry which the hon. gentleman has just made, and for the purpose of men carrying out the principle which the hon. gentleman says he has taken care that, for the future, shall always be carried out—the reference to a legal tribunal. I will read from the journals of the 17th of 1870, 71, the third reading of the day for the third reading of the bill (No 12) to confirm the deed for the distribution and settlement of the estate of the Hon. George Jarvis Goodhue, deceased, having been read.

The Hon. Mr. Richards moved, in amendment, seconded by Mr. Graham (Hastings), that all the words after that be omitted and the following words substituted therefor: the bill be not now read the third time, but that it be referred to the House, with an instruction to amend the same by inserting as the fourth clause the following:—“4 Provided always, and it is hereby declared, that the foregoing enactments or provisions shall have been decided by the majority of the Judges of one of the Superior Courts in this Province, that the interest of the testator's estate, by the said will bequeathed in trust for all his said wife, were on the living of the death of his said wife, were on the death of, or at any time thereafter before the passage of this Act, vested interests in the children of the testator. And with further instruction to insert the necessary provisions for obtaining the decision of such judges."

The amendment was put and lost on a division of 7 for and 45 against, and I read among the nays the following names:—Anderson, Barber, Baxter, Beatty and Blake.

Mr. Blake.—You will find my vote recorded against the bill.

Mr. John Macdonald.—The bill passed. There was a clause introduced for the purpose

The Manitoba Fever.

It is an old saying and true, that "a brown sweep sweeps clean." This Manitoba like the California Gold fever of former has taken such a hold upon the minds ple that few can see any drawbacks to there and prospecting, making for a short time. No failures of crops, no among the cattle by disease, or want of
in a cold winter, not even the difficulty procuring necessaries or disposing of stock or produce in those far back seems to cast a shadow on the sugar, in who are daily flocking to the North while many of them, if they were to work as hard and economize as much in present location, might be just as well
two years as those who emigrate.

But our object in writing is not to ciate the new country or run it down, is no denying it, for the most part, a farming land, and it is to be purchased low prices that it must be a great boon overstocked country or heavy in this who have but limited capital to in land.

The cost of living out there is not very high, and in clothing and books
you will have to pay, fully fifty per cent for such articles than in Ontario. We therefore strongly recommend those want to take with them a full supply of shoes, trunks, valises or anything in selling line, which can be obtained from Lockett at either of their large estab

WASHINGTON SPECIALS.
NEW YORK, April 28.—The Times says: While Blaine declines to say what he intends to do to prevent a coalition with Blair, he is not without the idea of a coalition with Blair, however, determined to resign from the Committee on Foreign Affairs, as he believes the committee have no purpose of presenting the Blaine nomination to the bottom. He complains that his attempts to make the examination of Blair through were not sustained by the committee, and its members had no sympathy with his efforts, which, however ill-conceived or clumsily directed they may have been, were pursued with the idea only of securing Blair's nomination for the extreme solicitude of Secretary Blair with regard to the Landrean claim.

MONTREAL, Jan. 16th, 1881.
Last summer my little girl was weak, delicate and nervous, and did not rest well at night. I gave her less than two bottles of your Emulsion, according to directions, and very much to her surprise, she improved soon after she began to take it. She improved so much in strength, sleep well at night, and took much of that nervousness with which she had been troubled, and gained in flesh as well as strength, and has never been so well since she took a course of your Emulsion.

MR. BARKWELL, of the Bell Telephone Agency here, is arranging to introduce instruments in Napanee. The agency is about 100 miles from Belleville, and a line is to be constructed between Napanee and Deseronto, and if favorable the circuit is to be completed between here and the village, taking in Belleville and all the villages north as far as Madoc.

A very enjoyable social entertainment was held last evening in the lecture room of the Belleville branch of the Napanee and Deseronto, and if favorable the circuit is to be completed between here and the village, taking in Belleville and all the villages north as far as Madoc.

At the meeting held in Mr. Corby's office last evening to celebrate the Driving Park scheme, it was decided to accept the offer of Mr. G. L. Coleman and lease the property owned by him on North Front St. Mr. Coleman's terms are: Free rent for one year, $200 bonus, the granting of a seven years lease at $120 per annum; and in case the lease is not renewed at the end of that period, the owner to pay to the company one-third of the cost of the improvements on the property. The subject of this plan was then raised to $1,207. It will probably take $2,000 to make the track and construct fences, sheds, etc.

MR. R. S. PATTERSON'S fine barn was destroyed by fire early this morning. The fire was discovered about two o'clock by a neighbor and was then by the owner of the building. The alarm was quickly given, but for some reason the firemen did not get to work for about twenty minutes afterwards, and by that time the barn was almost completely destroyed. It was a large barn, and contained a great deal of stock and other property. The fire was caused by a gas leak, and the cause is being investigated.

The Insular Office, which was given in charge of the police here on Thursday night by G. T. R. conductor, was sent back to Brighton last evening.

MORNING DESPATCHES AMERICAN.

NEW YORK, April 29.—Judge Hand of the Criminal Court yesterday sentenced a Jew to 24 hours in the city prison, for contempt of Court in appearing without a necktie.

A NEW MEDICAL COLLEGE. New York, April 29.—The students who resigned from the faculty of New York, are negotiating with a view to establishing a medical department here in connection with Cornell University. It is stated that the project is approved by President White. Should the trustees refuse to adopt it an established Medical College will be established.

WASHINGTON SPECIALS. The Tribune's special says the record of the colliery between Belmont and Maine cannot be expunged without the consent of the latter, as it is interwoven with remarks by him. It is not expected that he will consent.

THE HERALD says that nothing is known of the President's disposition towards the anti-union bill passed by the Senate yesterday, as account of verbal changes in the bill which has still to be taken up in the House and passed again before it goes to the President. Opponents to the former bill made in the veto message, he also against passing the bill to a certain important extent.

When the accounts of the members of the House, stating that the bill is not to be sent to the sub-committee for audit, Leifer and Leifer demanded the bill as disapproved and mortifying. Leifer was made physically sick by the report. He related to the Committee Room and lay down. All the members of the sub-committee, and the Sergeant at Arms, Thompson, agreed that they would never do to make the item public.

POLITICS IN CHICAGO. Chicago, April 29.—The State convention of colored men have adopted resolutions in favor of ousting the movement for the overthrow of the regular Democratic, and demanding the repeal or modification of the Penitentiary system, and insisting upon a larger appropriation for educational purposes, and that the bill be sent to the Senate.

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 29.—The Grand Jury indicted for conspiracy, Ocker, G. H. Haver, Meigs, Bowers, Smith, and H. Haver for the officers of the State Capital National Assessment Association which recently dissolved, after issuing policies to the amount of fifteen millions of dollars.

BOSTON, April 29.—The importations of oranges and lemons from Palermo and Messina, and other foreign ports for the past few months have been very heavy. The customs officers discovered the frauds that have been involved at about half the actual value. The Government is entitled to double the amount of duties paid by several merchants. Palermo and Messina have already refused to pay the duties to the collector. There have been similar discoveries at Philadelphia, N. Y., Baltimore, New Orleans, and other ports. The total amount of the fraud can hardly be estimated. It is asserted that the dishonest dealers have not been parties to the fraud, they having sold the fruit on commission, the profits by going to the foreign shippers. The fruit trade this season amounted to many millions.

THE AMERICAN HORSE. The American horse is the result of the crossing of the Arabian and the Thoroughbred. It is a powerful animal, and is used for many purposes. It is the most valuable animal in the world, and is the basis of all horse breeding.
